National Council of Jewish Women St. Louis

WHAT IS PROJECT RENEWAL?

Project Renewal is a program that empowers underserved women by helping them gain new skills and build confidence to take control of their lives and achieve their goals.

"I wanted to thank you once again for the beautiful experience. The women glowed for days after the Project Renewal session."

-Agency Volunteer Coordinator

WHO DO WE HELP?

We partner with local organizations that provide residential housing to women going through difficult times, with a focus on women who are victims of domestic violence, recovering from addiction, suffering with mental health issues or making a transition from homelessness.

"I was able to apply some of the skills I learned to help with my credit issues, which led to better job opportunities." -Past Participant

HOW DO WE HELP?

Project Renewal participants visit NCJW for a day of learning, shopping and pampering. They leave feeling uplifted, renewed, valued and empowered.

Each participant receives a gift card to The Resale Shop where they are able to get everything from clothes and shoes, to housewares.

We provide training that focuses on specialized skills to help participants achieve their specific goals, whether that is gaining meaningful employment or renting their first apartment.

Participants also receive hair, skin and makeup tips along with a complimentary beauty makeover. Participants are paired with a NCJW volunteer to help facilitate the day.

WHAT IS OUR IMPACT?

Project Renewal is often life-changing for participants. These women are able to gain valuable skills they can put to use every day to help manage their personal and professional lives, such as budgeting, resume writing and job interviewing.

"The clothes are awesome! I got a warm coat and a cute outfit for job interviews."
