MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Susan Katzman
susan314@charter.net

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE PAST

We have some major things going on at NCJW STL! Looking to the future, we are working on our next three-year Strategic Plan and are busy testifying on bills that will make a difference in the lives of women, children and families. The lens of the past will be reflected in our 125th anniversary celebration in 2020. I would like to elaborate on all three.

All forward thinking organizations operate from a strategic plan. We are no different. As we come to a close of the 2016-19 Strategic Plan, our Vice-Presidents and staff are busy meeting with their committees to assess what has been accomplished, what work should continue and what new plans should be made. We recently learned that there are over 1,600 non-profit organizations in St. Louis. Many have either been merging or closing their doors. There is a tremendous competition for dollars from individuals, funders and foundations. How an organization can articulate its mission and goals, measure its success and manage its money is critical. Much of our strength is based on what has been done in previous years. This plan will shape our direction through 2022. If you have any ideas you would like to see incorporated, please email me at susan314@charter.net or call 314.725.8041.

Advocacy has never been more critical. We testified on six bills in the first eight days of March, requiring four trips to Jefferson City. We've met with legislators on unpaid leave for victims of domestic violence, really bad abortion restrictions, voter photo ID funding, immigration status checks by law enforcement, child home day care limits and an allowance for domestic violence survivors to break a lease for safety reasons without penalty. Some of these bills will move out of committee to the floor of the house or senate and when they do, we will be back in Jefferson City. Thanks to our SPA Dianna Fine and Vice-President of Advocacy Nancy Litz for testifying and Linda Dahl, Barb Kramer, Laura Paperner, Mary Murphy, Marilen Pitler, Louise Levine, Heather Silverman and Ellen Alper for joining us on these trips.

The year 2020 will mark our 125th anniversary. We have so much to celebrate, so much to be proud of. Five women will lead our anniversary efforts: Nanci Bobrow, Darien Arnstein, Marilyn Ratkin, Marlene Hammerman and Lisa Gubernik. We are working on a commemorative video, several unique programs and speakers, a family community day of service with many of our current and former partners, fundraising opportunities, a planned giving initiative and so much more. We welcome anyone who would like to volunteer to be part of the overall planning committee or who would like to join us to plan one of the events. Please email me at susan314@charter.net, Ellen Alper at ealper@ncjwstl.org or any of the five co-chairs. More details will follow in the coming months!

Adrienne Davis is the William M. Van Cleve Professor of Law and Vice Provost at Washington University in St. Louis. Her academic teaching and research focus on what she calls "the law of daily life," including property, contracts and trusts/estates.

As Vice Provost, she works for the University's chief academic officer on a suite of initiatives to support faculty hiring, retention/development and designing infrastructure to support students.

In Fall 2017, Davis was recognized with a Washington University Founders Day Distinguished Faculty Award. In the same year, she was also honored as a St. Louis Woman of Achievement for Arts Advocacy. Davis earned her B.A. and J.D. from Yale University where she served on the Executive Committee of the Yale Law Journal.

Those lucky enough to attend Professor Davis' presentation at the opening plenary of NCJW's 2018 Leadership Retreat were certainly empowered by her meaningful words. Please join us on May 9th to get inspired and empowered to make the changes you'd like to see in the world.

LEAVE YOUR LEGACY

Keep NCJW STL Thriving

Planned giving can ensure that the organization you believe in and have supported over the years will continue to receive your support in perpetuity.

Plan Ahead, Your Way

An estate gift, life insurance policy, endowment or bequest is a simple way to continue a lifetime of support for our mission, which you believe in. Each allow you to take advantage of numerous tax and financial benefits and we can make it easy by providing language for you, your attorney and/or your estate planner.

For more information, contact Ellen Alper, Executive Director at 314.993.5181 or ecalper@ncjwstl.org or Darien Arnstein at sdarnstein@sbcglobal.net.

CHAMPION FOR SOCIAL CHANGE AWARD AT WASHINGTON INSTITUTE

NCJW STL received the Champion for Social Change award from NCJW in recognition of our successful efforts to improve access to long-acting contraceptives through Missouri's family planning program. The award was presented at NCJW's Washington Institute, the organization's premier triennial public policy event which was held in Washington, DC, on April 7-9, 2019. Marlene Hammerman, Chair of the LARC Committee, accepted the award on our behalf. 17 NCJWSTL members attended this tri-annual event and visited our federal law makers on the Hill.

LEADERSHIP CLASS

On May 8th, 15 dynamic women will graduate from the 2018-2019 NCJW STL Leadership Class

The Leadership Class is designed to provide training and cultivation of future NCJW leadership. Betty Kagan and Amanda Stein were Co-Chairs. "We are so lucky to have women who span ages, life experiences and careers participate in our leadership class. Throughout the series we have seen new friendships form, ideas sparked and new leaders being born." -- Leadership Class Co-chair, Amanda Stein

Beginning in October, the class attended monthly informative sessions created by NCJW Leadership Committee members that covered topics such as leadership, communication strategies, the ins and outs of NCJW STL, advocacy and life balance. In addition, the class did a project to identify new opportunities for NCJW.

"I feel so fortunate to have had the opportunity to be part of the NCJW Leadership Class. The sessions are informative, inspiring and have introduced me to top leaders in our region. Similarly, I feel lucky to be sharing this journey with an incredible cohort of diverse and talented women from throughout our community. While I knew the Leadership Class would be impactful, I never could have imagined the life lessons and deep relationships I would come away with. How lucky are we in St. Louis to have such a meaningful leadership program available to our Jewish women!" -- class participant, Amy Bornstein

NCJW BACK TO SCHOOL! STORE

19TH ANNUAL

JULY 21
CONGREGATION
TEMPLE ISRAEL

On July 21, 2019, NCJW STL will once again help 1,500+ underserved kids get ready for the first day of school. Each child will shop with an NCJW personal shopper to select a new shirt, pants, shoes, socks, underwear, winter coat, hat and gloves, backpack, books and school supplies so he/she starts the school year with confidence and readiness to learn. While the children shop, their families can visit the Family Resource Room. This is one of the most rewarding and fun events of the year and you don't want to miss it! How can you help? Sponsor or volunteer!

SPONSOR A CHILD

For $180 you can help a child start the school year with confidence by providing them with the brand new essentials they need to be successful at school. Each child coming through the Back to School! Store will receive: a backpack filled with school supplies, clothing, shoes, winter wear, personal care items and books.

To sponsor a child, visit ncjwstl.org or call Lorie at 314.993.5181 to sponsor and pay via credit card.

VOLUNTEER

It takes over 600 volunteers to make the Back to School! Store a success. Those who have volunteered in the past agree that it is the best volunteer experience of the year. There are many volunteer jobs available:

- Personal Shopper
- Shoe Fitter
- Re-stocker
- Set up/Break down

Volunteer Registration is open online at ncjwstl.org.

NCJW PROJECT RENEWAL

On Sunday, March 24th, NCJW STL volunteers hosted 11 women from Haven of Grace and Women's Safe House at Project Renewal. The afternoon event included interview skills sessions, nutrition workshops, shopping, hair and make-up services and a relaxing and rejuvenating chair yoga session. The impact of the day was summed up by one of the Project Renewal participants, "I feel so good. I never feel this way." Thank you to the volunteers and workshop leaders for making the day so special and valuable for our guest.

JEWS UNITED FOR JUSTICE TASK FORCE

NCJW STL is partnering with Jews United for Justice to influence local policy to help prevent predatory lending. If you are interested in more information or getting involved contact Heather Silverman at hsilverman@ncjwstl.org or 314.993.5181.

Many of NCJW's core issues are in the news: keeping our members up-to-date on the details through our Advocacy in Action Lunch and Learn series of informative sessions at the NCJW office is a top priority. We begin gathering at 11:30 am and our top-tier speaker will be from noon to 1:00 pm. Bring your lunch; we will provide drinks. It's also a great opportunity to introduce a friend to NCJW's impressive advocacy work.

MAY 16

June is PRIDE month, and with continued attacks on LGBTQ rights in Jefferson City and Washington DC, we need to know how to be effective allies. Our friends from PROMO will be joined by attorney Elizabeth Schlesinger (recently highlighted in the Jewish Light for her work on LGBTQ issues) to bring us up-to-date on what's happening and prepare us for expressing our support at the annual PRIDE parade and festival.

JUNE 20

As some politicians are decrying so-called "Fake News," our June program will focus on how to evaluate media credibility and protect press freedom. We've invited representatives from the editorial staffs of Riverfront Times, St Louis American and St Louis Public Radio to help us distinguish real from not-real. We saved this topic for the summertime so you can invite the teens in your life to join us.

JULY 25

No More Thoughts & Prayers - a locally-produced documentary film by that name features high school students and their efforts toward sensible gun reform in the wake of the shooting at Marjorie Stoneman Douglas High School. The film's producers and representatives from Mom's Demand Action will share their insights and answer questions about what citizens can do.

To make sure we have adequate seating, please RSVP to Lorie at 314.993.5181 or llong@ncjwstl.org. We look forward to seeing you!
