THIS WEEK! December Lunch and Learn - Gun Violence Prevention Strategies with Gail Wechsler

Thursday, December 15, 2022
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM CT

Gail Wechsler

When: Thursday, December 15 | 12:00 – 1:00 PM CT

Where: Zoom

Gun violence is a leading cause of premature death in the U.S., killing more than 39,000 people and causing nearly 85,000 injuries each year. Just a few weeks ago, a 19-year-old former student at St. Louis' Central Visual and Performing Arts High School used an AR-15-style rifle and more than 600 rounds of ammunition to kill a student and teacher and injure several others.

These deaths are preventable.

For our December Lunch and Learn, we are excited to welcome Moms Demand Action's Missouri State Communications Lead and NCJWSTL board member Gail Wechsler, who is an expert on legislative advocacy and school safety as pertaining to gun violence. Every time there is a school shooting, we all seem to be at a loss about what to do. Gail will help guide us in how to better make an impact.

Tell Congress: Expand the Child Tax Credit!

We have an incredible opportunity to create real bipartisan change and provide millions of families with some desperately needed cash. But we need YOU and CONGRESS to make it happen.

Negotiations have already begun for a major end-of-the-year tax package. This is a huge opportunity for us to create real change for our families and once again get a much needed expansion of the Child Tax Credit.

Census data shows that the temporary expansion of the Child Tax Credit that was included in the American Rescue Plan led to a historic reduction in child poverty. Before its untimely expiration, this policy bolstered the ability of 40 million families to meet afford basics like food, clothes, housing, and childcare. Bottom line, continuing the expansion will help lift people out of poverty.

Please click here to tell Congress that any tax package passed at the end of the year must include an expansion of the CTC!

75 for the 75th: A virtual activity to support the NCJW Israel Granting Program

Did you know? NCJW's Israel Granting Program seeks to improve the lives of women, children, and families throughout Israel. The organizations and projects we fund advance women's empowerment and gender equality, and strengthen shared society and democracy in Israel. In celebration of our program and Israel's 75th birthday, we are excited to announce a special effort to raise funds for these organizations making critical change. You can read more about these incredible programs by clicking here.

How will this work? Participants can pledge \$75 to walk 75 miles\* in celebration of the ISRAEL GRANTING PROGRAM'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY. The celebration will include in-person meet-ups to foster community and build engagement. The effort itself will start on January 15, 2023 and run until April 26, 2023, which is Israel Independence Day. Once you register, we will send instructions on keeping track of your progress. At the end of the effort, we will have a drawing for a special prize!

*As an alternative to walking 75 miles, participants may run 75 miles, swim 75 hours, exercise for 75 hours, play pickleball (or other racket sports) for 75 hours, play soccer (or another team sports) for 75 hours, read 75 hours, advocate for 75 hours. Really, anything you want. We hear that Ellen Alper is going to bake 75 cookies!

FINAL WEEK! Tell Secretary of State Ashcroft to Say NO to Banning Books BY December 15th

Now is the time to make your voice heard! Members of the public can now formally weigh in on an attempt by Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft to block public funding for libraries if they offer books that might appeal to the sexual interests of minors and are supportive of the LGBTQ+ community. In essence, he is attempting to ban books.

You have until December 15th to submit comments to Secretary Ashcroft voicing your opposition to this proposal. Depending on these comments, the rule could be reworked or it could go before a bipartisan panel of state lawmakers who could vote to send the matter to the full House and Senate.

Below are some sample talking points:

- Librarians believe that parents can and should be responsible for what their own children read. By allowing anyone to challenge material, this rule would infringe on the First Amendment rights of parents as well as older children.
- There is already a process in place to review books that are on library shelves, based on the professional expertise of librarians.
- For libraries, the loss of state funding would have a profoundly negative impact in their communities. The public library system is a basic community service.
- The placement of books and materials in libraries is something that should be left up to people with training and experience in the profession of librarianship.

Comments may be submitted to the Secretary of State's office via email at comments@sos.mo.gov or by traditional mail to Office of the Missouri Secretary of State, P.O. Box 1767, Jefferson City, MO 65102. Comments submitted via email must include "15 CSR 30-200.015" in the subject line.

Interesting Reading

The conservative-controlled Supreme Court has already attacked reproductive rights by means of Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health. It's set to revoke affirmative action in Students for Fair Admissions v. Harvard. Next on its list of things to take away are LGBTQ rights.

Last Monday morning, the court heard 303 Creative v. Elenis, the case conservatives will use to roll back human progress still more. As usual, the conservative court members can be expected to rule on the side of bigotry—in the guise of “religious freedom”—to the detriment of everybody else.
