January Lunch & Learn: Combatting Human Trafficking with FBI Special Agent Daniel Root

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM CT

Daniel Root

When: Thursday, January 18 | 12:00 - 1:00 PM

Where: Zoom

January is National Human Trafficking Prevention Month. Every year since 2010, the President has dedicated the month to raise awareness about human trafficking and to educate the public about how to identify and prevent this crime. Because combatting human trafficking is one of NCJWSTL's priority issues, we dedicate each January's Lunch & Learn to educating our membership and raising awareness on this topic.

For January's Lunch & Learn, we are thrilled to welcome FBI Special Agent Daniel Root. Because he often works undercover, we will not be showing his photo before his presentation.

Daniel Root is assigned to the Violent Crimes Against Children/Human Trafficking task force. Prior to the FBI, Daniel worked as a linguist, high school teacher, and with a refugee resettlement agency and immigration clinic. He was a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) volunteer before joining the FBI. In his current assignment, he investigates child exploitation and trafficking crimes, as well as serving as an FBI Crisis Negotiator.

Birthing Justice Screening and Panel Discussion

When: Thursday, January 25 | 6:30 - 8:30 PM

Where: Temple Israel | 1 Rabbi Alvan D. Rubin Drive, St. Louis, 63141

Global maternal mortality is decreasing, but the US ratio of deaths to live births has doubled since 1987. Missouri's ratio is now double the national average, and getting worse -- higher than 42 other states, and in fact eight times higher than the lowest state. And the rate for Black Missourians is three times higher than for white women.

Policies can change that trajectory. California, for example, has reduced maternal deaths by 65% over the last 15 years. Join us to learn Missouri's scope of the problem, underlying causes and potential solutions at a screening and panel discussion of the award-winning documentary, Birthing Justice, which tells the story of the crisis faced by Black mothers and their children and the solutions needed to transform the maternal care system.

Birthing Justice explores the issues fueling the maternal health crisis within the Black community and advocates for the best practices to enhance birthing equity for all women. By revealing the lived experiences of Black women and their advocates working to fix a broken system, Birthing Justice flips the victim-blaming narrative of this national epidemic.

Our important panel discussion will be moderated by Darcy Scharff, PhD and include Dr. Melissa Tepe, Melissa Betts-Sanders (a woman with lived experience) and Lora Gulley of Generate Health, who will issue a call to action for attendees.

The Birthing Justice screening and panel discussion is sponsored by NCJWSTL, Generate Health, Temple Israel and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. The event is free of charge, but registration is required. Please click here to register and for more information, please click here.

ADD YOUR NAME and Help Us Oppose Censorship of Our Public Libraries

For those who have already joined, thank you!

To protect libraries throughout Missouri, including those at public schools, NCJWSTL has helped convene a statewide coalition of individuals and organizations called Right to Read. The coalition will oppose any legislative, state policy or other effort to restrict access to materials at public libraries; the coalition has the utmost confidence in trained, experienced librarians and educators to evaluate and select materials in the libraries' collection.

Did you know?

- As a result of a Missouri law enacted in August 2022 restricting some types of materials in public schools, librarians fearful of criminal prosecution have removed nearly 300 titles from school library shelves.
- Under an administrative rule imposed by Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft, all public libraries must have submitted by July 31 how they will comply with the vaguely written rule. Failure to comply could result in loss of state funding, which comprises a significant portion of small libraries' budgets.
- Missouri is among the nation's top book banning states, especially regarding restricting access to books about gender, sexuality and race in public schools.

More attempts will likely be made in the 2024 Missouri legislative session to suppress First Amendment rights. Free and open access to materials at our public libraries is an essential aspect of our democracy.

Partner Abortion Clinic Needs Donations

For the past year, NCJWSTL has partnered with local abortion clinics across the river in Illinois to provide direct support services to patients.

One of our partner clinics is in need of a few specific items:

- Gas cards
- Snack bags (pretzels, cookies, granola bars, etc.)
- Diapers (sizes 1-5)
- Travel shampoo
- Baby formula

This is an opportunity to make a "hands-on" difference in someone's life. Please drop off or mail any donations to the NCJWSTL office at 295 N. Lindbergh, St. Louis, MO, 63141. For more information, please contact Renee Sigel-Hearst at rsigel-hearst@ncjwstl.org.

Get FREE Emergency Contraception at NCJWSTL!

NCJWSTL is thrilled to announce that we have partnered with the Missouri Family Health Council (MFHC) to distribute FREE emergency contraception kits! This effort is vitally important in the wake of last year's Supreme Court decision overturning Roe vs. Wade, especially in states like Missouri where abortion is illegal. Everyone should have the right to determine when and if they wish to start a family, and emergency contraception is vital in preventing unwanted pregnancies.

Also known as the morning-after pill, or by the brand name Plan B, the emergency contraception pill is an over-the-counter form of birth control that can be taken up to five days after unprotected sex to avoid pregnancy. The goal of this effort is to reduce geographic and financial barriers Missourians face in accessing emergency contraception pills.

While supplies last, MFHC, NCJWSTL and other partner organizations are offering free EC kits to anyone of any age. Feel free to stop by the NCJWSTL office to pick up your kit - for you or a loved one.

If you have any questions, please contact Jen Bernstein at jbernstein@ncjwstl.org. You can also order an emergency contraception kit by mail by clicking here.

Interesting Reading

Jamie Corley, founder of the Missouri Women and Family Research Fund, is promoting an amendment to the state constitution that she claims would "enshrine access to abortion in the first 12 weeks of pregnancy with extended exceptions for rape, incest, fatal fetal abnormalities and if the pregnancy threatens the health and safety of the woman."

This sounds fairly reasonable to many and is better than what we currently have in MO, right? However, in breaking down this proposal, you will see that it's unlikely her amendment would accomplish any of what she claims.
