FAMILY RESOURCE GUIDE
GUÍA DE RECURSOS FAMILIARES

The National Council of Jewish Women St. Louis Family Resource Guide is a listing of resources and services provided by organizations that are available to help families throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area.

The listing of agencies/organizations is organized alphabetically by the services provided (for example, Grief Counseling/Support, Housing Assistance, Services for Children with Special Needs), and includes each organization's phone number and website.

Resources and services provided by agencies change over time. This listing will be updated annually. We hope that you will find this guide useful in finding and connecting with the resources you need for you and your family. If you cannot locate the services or support you need, call the United Way at 2-1-1 for further assistance.

Thank you to Royal Banks of Missouri for generously underwriting the printing of this guide.

If you are interested in underwriting future editions and/or printings of this guide, please contact us at info@ncjwstl.org or by calling (314) 993.5181.

NCJWSTL PROGRAMS & PROJECTS

Education + Advocacy + Community Service = Lasting transformative changes in the lives of women, children, and families in our community

NCJWSTL has founded more than 55 programs and projects in the St. Louis community and impacted countless policies and legislation since 1895. Informed of social and economic inequities through partnerships with more than 300 local agencies, NCJWSTL leverages these relationships to maximize our collective impact to meet community needs and address root causes.

NCJWSTL does not wait for problems to solve themselves. When we see a student in need of a backpack and winter coat, we are not only there to provide those supplies to keep that child safe, warm, confident, and ready to learn, we also address the circumstances and policies that caused the student's family to need assistance in the first place. For more information: 314.993.5181 | ncjwstl.org

The Back To School! Store provides over 2,000 children with new coats, hats, gloves, backpacks, school supplies, shoes and so much more to ensure students are prepared and excited on the first day of school to learn with confidence.

Kids Community Closets provide new clothing, coats, backpacks, school supplies, and personal care items to students empowering them to attend school every day and maximize their learning potential.

The Healing Hearts Bank program provides microloans to women and families who may not have access to traditional banking to help with income generation, credit building, and economic justice through partnerships with community organizations.

Project Renewal is a program that empowers women by helping them gain new skills and build confidence to take control of their lives and achieve their goals.

The Wife Widowed Woman program provides ongoing support to those who have lost their life partner, bridging the gap between grief and growth as they strive to meet life's new challenges.

NCJWSTL conducts informed and articulate advocacy efforts to support government and social policies that improve the lives of women, children, and families.

Proceeds from The Resale Shop provide funding for NCJWSTL's many programs and projects to improve the lives of women, children, and families.
